Keynote Description:

Nobody Wants to 'Work':

Conscious Leadership Practices that will Attract, Engage, and Retain Talent

What if...

...your multi-generational employees feel they are active contributors to the success of the business? What if they experience meaning at work? What if your organization had a foundation of high-trust, high-performance, where high-happiness is realized?

How would your culture be impacted? What practices would a leader need to implement to attract, engage, retain, and bolster such talent?

Suzanne has interviewed hundreds of entrepreneurs and leaders and uses research that exposes why employees don't want to work, and why they do.

Through the lens of conscious leaders', strategies emerge to bake into your organization's DNA.

Employees are transformed into intrapreneurs, where they are empowered, productive, and purposeful—creating a culture, where everyone profits.

What will the audience experience during this keynote?

There will be no catching the latest news on cell phones during this keynote! The Audience members are to be too busy transforming their perspectives— through a series of questions that will allow them to form their own realizations.

The experience is punctuated with eight conscious leadership practices that will create a culture of collaboration.

In a dynamic keynote, the audience will identify which conscious leadership technique they need to evolve or incorporate first.

This keynote creates the most significant value to...

Entrepreneurs, small business owners, leaders, and managers—anyone with influence in an organization.

Keynote is tailored to theme, audience, and desired outcome.
